

ABC Association Monthly Newsletter – January 2014

Dear Friends,

I hope you all enjoyed your Christmas Holidays – Wherever and however you spent them!

This will be a short newsletter, as we are now in “Winter” mode, and things will be quiet around the Hall for the next month.

However, we have one great piece of news for you – Our web site is now up and running!

The site is at www.abchall.ca – Take a look at it, and put it on your list of bookmarks or favourites!

Jude Pearson has done a superb job of putting the site together for us. It contains just about everything you want to know about the Association, the Hall, our events, newsletters, and plans. As it becomes better known and used, we will be launching a face book page, and will expand the site with new information and services.

Don't miss our next Bolingbroke Cafe which will be on Friday February 7th. George Reynolds and Aiden Wolf will be the featured performers. They will each play a set in the first half followed by a song circle after a break with George, Aiden, Mike Irvin and Mike Erion. It will be another great evening, so beat the winter blahs by coming out and enjoying the cafe! The doors open at 7.00 for coffee, tea and desserts, with the entertainment starting at 8.00.

The Community Pot Lucks and Music jams will resume in February – the next one being on February 15th. Mike Irvin (613-727-8360) will host the next two jams for us as Glenn enjoys some warmth in the Bahamas!

The Monday Euchre games have taken a break for January and February, but the CPHC Monday Exercise Classes have started again and the CPHC Diners Club and Friends Forever are on their regular schedule.

The Musicians Circle is also back after a Christmas break. This is a popular regular event with musicians travelling from as far as Perth and Balderson to come to it.

We're now busy planning the “Victorian Tea” which we've moved to June 7th, as more of you will be here then. More news later. It looks to be a lot of fun!

I'm going to be away for a couple of weeks, starting on Monday, but will send out the next newsletter when I return in early February.

Just a reminder – Take a look at our web site and use the communications button to send us an email and tell us what you think about it!

With best wishes – whether you are here soldiering through the winter or somewhere warm missing it!

Martin
